summer with lafont

The season of summer is finally here! Pack your bags and get ready for an unforgettable journey perfectly accessorized with the latest Lafont sunglasses. Will you prowl the urban jungle of New York City? Or will your travels take you to a romantic beach destination in the South of France? Is a remote destination in your future to recharge and renew? Wherever your plans take you, ensure your eyes are well protected and your look is completed with Lafont's SS2017 sunglass collection.

summer in the city

Whether you are shopping in SOHO, strolling through Central Park or even sipping a cocktail on a rooftop bar, the New York City summer guarantees an unforgettable urban experience.

The VOGUE sunglasses are a perfect companion for those long summer days in the city. With a fashionable cat-eye silhouette and femme forward details the VOGUE sunglasses will complete any fashionista's look.

Ready to see and be seen this summer season? Get ready to turn heads with the glamorous VANDA sunglasses. Delicate lacework in stainless steel is complemented with gradient color tones. The combination of stunning design and eye catching hues is perfect for sunning beachside or on your favorite boat deck.

rest and relaxation...

Ready for a little R&R? If you're wanting to take a step away from the city grind and opt for a secluded faraway destination, the VANNES sunglasses will be your perfect travel companion.

With an embossed panther print design and perfectly round silhouette the VANNES sunglasses offers Zen-like appeal.

School is out and summer is here! The warm months means fun in the sun for kids, and young eyes need protection from harmful UV rays. The new Lafont Pour Les Enfants sunglass collection offers frames with both protection and style. Designed for children ages 4-7 the new ALOHA and ADELE sunglasses are both available in fresh new colors for summer. Not to be left out, the youngest frame wearers also have OKAPI and OURSON, designed specifically for their unique tastes and characteristics.

Lafont's collection of eyewear for children is the premier offering for children 6 months to 12 years, with exceptional comfort, design and fit.
